

This system should not be used without thorough investigation of its noise and interference properties. It should not be allowed to degrade the amateur radio or other services. I have been a ham (K9ZT) for 62 years. With many years of experience in accelerator physics my gut intuitive feeling is that the proposed system is a "NOGO." Thank you.